

Religious Gatheka – Hazrat Inayat Khan

27 Sufism is “the” religion

This Month’s Concentration:

Read and contemplate daily for the next several weeks

Pir-o-Murshid Hazrat Inayat Khan’s lecture: Religion

Reflect Daily on the Following Points in Gatheka 27

Hazrat Inayat Khan in this Gatheka emphasizes the follow. Let us contemplate:

1. And the question if the Sufis have a religion, a form or a dogma may be answered: “The Sufi is not subject to a form or dogma, but the Sufi uses the form and the dogma as the soul uses a name and a form.”

Contemplate: How do we rise above form and dogma and yet use form and dogma in order to illuminate our understanding of the various world religions and Sufi Ideal which is Spiritual Liberty and the Unity of Spiritual Ideals?

2. And the Sufi worship is a worship of all scriptures and all religions.

Contemplate: From the Prayer Salat, “Allow us to recognize Thee in all Thy holy names and forms.”
