

ON this happy and auspicious day,
the anniversary of

IR-O-

MURSHID'S BIRTH,

we, his murceeds, unite to lay at his feet our homage, in gratitude and loving devotion.

Our Murshid, at the word of his Murshid, forsook friends and ease, and, stripping himself of fame and comfort, left the peace and beauty of his life, to come out into the turmoil of a strange world, to bring illumination through his presence and wisdom and harmony by the music of his soul. Then, inspired by the word of God, with high unfaltering courage, he made a way where no way (way) was, and, drawing upon himself the spears of all that was adverse, made that way easy for those who shall follow.

How shall we tell our gratitude? How may we speak of the blessing of his presence, the upliftment of his power, the illumination of his wisdom, the ceaseless mercy of his heart? The eyes of our soul are fixed on that form in which we see the rays of that Sun collected and mirrored, the music of his soul rings in our hearts, we bow before him, proud of a humble allegiance, honoured in doing the humblest service, the happier if it is in time of stress; we will not fail nor fall away until that light be set upon a height.

Mary Williams	Cecil E. Best	Hilda 'Hind' Best
Barth Young	Janette Steer	Flora M. Prentiss
Hilda Best	Adela T. Baer	Beatrice Hope
Nancy Olive	Marcus Barclay	E. R. Benton
Similes Jones	E. Glaser	Shirley Lucy
J. C. Dowland	Charles de B.	Gordon J.
A. E. Peake	W. A. P.	Nevada family
C. G. Slater	H. B. B.
Corisande J. Phillips	Harold J. White
E. M. Green	S. G. Lloyd
Lucy Burnett	Major W. H. H.	