

This year's theme:
THE LIVING HEART

He who makes room in his heart for others, will himself find accommodation everywhere

Gayan: Boulas

Yes! Our Summer School program, dedicated to 'The Living Heart', is alive and growing. Here are some of the latest developments. Register now (click) so you don't miss out!

Hosh Neva – the Turkish ensemble from Mannheim will close Summer School I with a performance on the evening of Monday, July 18th. A concert? No – a musical meditation.

Love, Light, Life will be the theme of the lecture on Thursday, July 14th, by Murshida Nuria Sabato, our recently appointed Co-General Representative.

Don't miss the 'Heart Attunements' – four different dance offerings expressing devotion to the messengers or prophets of various traditions, presented by Nirtan Pasnak.

For the complete experience, plan to attend all the sessions of 'Awakening the Spirit' – a progressive series of spiritual exercises, offered by Nawab Pasnak.

The Zirat portion of the program on the afternoon of Thursday, the 14th will not be a ritual but an Element Contemplation.

The Panel lectures on Saturday evening, the 16th, will be on the subject of 'Qualities of the Heart'. Panel members: Rani McLaughlin, KarimaGita Erickson-Harper and Amir Smits.

Coming by car? Please be aware that the nearby parking is paid, by coins or by mobile, but not by pin-card: €2 per hour or €10 for the day. Free parking is available on Laan van Nieuw Zuid and Parklaan south side until the cemetery (7 minutes walk).

Join us in the Summer School...
We hope to see you there!
